OPERA BOSTON UNDERGROUND, INFORMAL OPERA CABARET RETURNS TO LIZARD LOUNGE NOV. 19 WITH A SPECIAL SEVEN VIRTUES-THEMED SHOW

(BOSTON) The popular Opera Boston Underground returns to the Lizard Lounge (1667 Massachusetts Ave., Cambridge) on Wednesday, Nov. 19, 2008. The program will feature songs and arias of the seven virtues. Program TBD. The show is 21+ and there is an $10 cover charge. Doors open at 7 and the approximately 90-minute show starts at 7:30 pm. Advance tickets are NOT available.

Opera Boston Underground will be hosted by Opera Boston Music Director Gil Rose, and feature Glorivy Arroyo along with other young Company singers.

In early 2009, Opera Boston Underground will follow up with a "Seven Deadly Sins" themed show. Date and program TBD.

Opera Boston seeks to extend its reach by providing non-traditional venues for opera performance. Not only will it demystify opera for new audience, but it also gives young Opera Boston singers the chance to try out different repertoire in a fun, informal setting.
