

2009/2010 Season

All performances conducted by Music Director Gil Rose

Tancredi

by Gioacchino Rossini

Starring Ewa Podleś - the definitive Tancredi of our time - in her Boston stage debut, Opera Boston's new production marks the first Boston performances in over a century of Rossini's epic drama.

October 23, 25 & 27, 2009

Directed by Kristine McIntyre

Sung in Italian with English titles

Madame White Snake The world premiere

by Zhou Long, composer Cerise Lim Jacobs, creator and librettist

Starring Ying Huang and directed by Robert Woodruff, the world premiere of Madame White Snake, a cross-cultural drama of passion and transformation based on a beloved Chinese legend, is an international operatic event not to be missed!

February 26, 28 & March 2, 2010

Directed by Robert Woodruff

Sung in English with titles

La Grande-Duchesse de Gérolstein

by Jacques Offenbach

Stephanie Blythe, one of the most highly-acclaimed artists in opera today, stars as Offenbach's spoiled and capricious but magnetic petty tyrant who just can't resist a man in uniform. Metropolitan Opera stage director David Kneuss makes his Opera Boston debut with this saucy, satirical operetta.

April 30, May 2 & 4, 2010

Directed by David Kneuss

Sung in French / Spoken English dialogue with titles
